Vanuatu Update
Tuesday 30 November 2004

Venue: Club Vanuatu, Port Vila

10.15 Welcome
Professor John Lynch
Pro Vice Chancellor, University of the South Pacific, Emalus Campus

MORNING SESSION

CHAIR The Hon. Moana Carcasses Kalosil (to be confirmed)
Minister for Finance and Economic Management

10.30–11.00 Update on the economy of Vanuatu—the search for growth
Odo Tevi
Governor, Reserve Bank of Vanuatu

11.00–11.10 Comment
Nikunj Soni
Department of Finance

11.10–11.30 Discussion

11.30–11.50 The Vanuatu forestry industry at the crossroads
Russell Nari
Environment Department, Government of Vanuatu

11.50–12.00 Discussion

12.00–12.20 Political fragmentation and policy development
Michael Morgan
The Australian National University

12.20–12.30 Discussion
12.30–1.30  LUNCH

AFTERNOON SESSION

CHAIR  Jean Sese (to be confirmed)
Director-General, Prime Minister’s Office

1.30–2.00  The Vanuatu National Integrity Study
Tess Newton-Cain
Consultant

2.00–2.20  Discussion

2.20–2.40  South–South policy transfer: the case of the Vanuatu Ombudsman’s Office
Manuhuia Barcham
Massey University

2.40–2.50  Discussion

2.50–3.10  Afternoon tea

3.10–3.30  Australia’s relationship with the Pacific
Ellie Wainwright
Australian Strategic Policy Institute

3.30–3.40  Discussion

3.40–4.00  Summing up and close

For more information and to RSVP, please contact
Jean-Pierre Nirua (University of the South Pacific) Email: nirua_j@vanuatu.usp.ac.fj
Debra Grogan (The Australian National University) Email: debra.grogan@anu.edu.au

Presented by the Asia Pacific School of Economics and Government,
The Australian National University.
The organisers are grateful to the Australian Government’s overseas aid program, delivered through AusAID, for its support of this event.