Papua New Guinea Update 2002
Wednesday 6 November
Venue: University of Goroka

9.00–9.10 Welcome:
Dr Musawe Sinebare
Acting Vice Chancellor, University of Goroka

CHAIR Mr Joseph Kata
Pro Vice Chancellor (Academic), University of Goroka

9.10–9.50 Papua New Guinea economy: correcting Papua New Guinea’s costly economic cycles
Mr Craig Sugden
Economic Insights

9.50–10.00 Discussant
Dr Felix Bablis
University of Goroka

10.00–10.20 Discussion

10.20–10.50 Concept, challenges and constraints: PNG national identity and nation-building
Dr Gairo Onagi and Dr Michael Mel
University of Goroka

10.50–11.00 Discussion led by
Professor Andrew MacIntyre
APSEM, The Australian National University

11.00–11.10 Discussion

11.10–11.30 Morning tea

11.30–11.50 The new higher education plan—the White Paper and national identity
Dr Goru Hane-Nou
University of Goroka

11.50–12.10 Media literacy and national identity in the classroom
Dr Lynus Yamuna
University of Goroka

12.10–12.30 Discussion led by
Professor Ron Duncan
APSEM, The Australian National University

12.30–1.30 LUNCH
The organisers are grateful to the Australian Government’s overseas aid program, delivered through AusAID, for its support of this update.

CHAIR  Professor Andrew MacIntyre
Director, Asia Pacific School of Economics and Management, The Australian National University

1.30–2.00  Privatisation—what next?
Ms Celine Peter
Executive Officer
Consultative Implementation and Monitoring Council

2.00–2.10  Comment
Mr Otto Kerua

2.10–2.20  Discussion

2.20–2.50  Capital flight from Papua New Guinea
Professor Ron Duncan
Asia Pacific School of Economics and Management, The Australian National University

2.50–3.00  Discussion

3.00–3.20  Afternoon tea

3.20–3.40  Custom and democracy
Dr Peter Larmour
APSEM, The Australian National University

3.40–3.50  Custom, resources and women in the Bougainville conflict
Dr Jerry Semos
University of Goroka

3.50–4.00  Discussion

4.00–4.50  PANEL DISCUSSION
National identity and women
Dr Kapa Malpo

The economic impacts of AIDS in Papua New Guinea
Ms Celine Peter

General discussion

4.50–5.00  Closing remarks

For more information, contact
Jerry Semos
University of Goroka
ph. 731-1796; fax. 731-1746
email: <semosj@uog.ac.pg>

Debra Grogan
The Australian National University
ph 612-61258258
email <debra.grogan@anu.edu.au>.